Dear Nancy,

It has been a real pleasure knowing you that past few years. Especially in the summer '57.

Remember all the talks we have gathered up. In Mrs. Lawrence's room. Also, remember in our good work with

Chuck, Debbie, Mr. Bell, & Mr. Howard.

On several good memories the time

we had when we got a C in chemistry.

& wouldn't see the picture

that it's been a wonderful time when that's been known you.

I couldn't have had such a good time on all of our business as if hadn't been for you.

It's been a wonderful knowing

you. I hope you have the best of luck always.

Yours truly,
Di (Diana)

P.S. Remember Mary Ann's Aunt and "Thomas Duckie" car.

Foreword

"Of no talent He has given will He require a more strict account than of our time." It therefore becomes a sacred trust which ought to be used wisely. Its use determines not only the extent of true happiness here on earth but also our fitness for heaven. Since squandered time can never be redeemed, we should guard especially the precious years of school allotted to our lives. Time—has been chosen as the theme for this year's annual.

Dedication

For your many years of unselfish interest and your sincere devotion to our school and for your excellent leadership in presenting the finest in Christian education based upon your genuine love for God and His principles; to you, Mr. Parker, we the students and faculty of G.U.A. dedicate this 1957 STEPPING STONE.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF GLENDALE UNION ACADEMY

As revised February 1, 1956

We, the students and teachers of Glendale Union Academy, to promote Christian school spirit and patriotism, to cultivate and maintain good fellowship among its members, to obtain an experience in parliamentary procedure, and to foster general interest in the welfare and support of G.U.A., do adopt and establish this constitution:

ARTICLE I — NAME

This association shall be called the Associated Students of Glendale Union Academy.

ARTICLE II — MEMBERSHIP

The membership of the Associated Students of G.U.A. shall consist of all teachers and students of the Senior High School grades.

ARTICLE III — OFFICERS

Officers of the Associated Students of Glendale Union Academy shall be a president, a religious vice-president, a secretary, treasurer, pianist, chorister, organist, faculty advisor, and editor-in-chief of the Stepping Stone.

ARTICLE IV — ELECTIONS

The association shall be elected by ballot not later than the first week of the first semester and are to serve for one semester, except for the editor-in-chief of the Stepping Stone, who shall serve for one school year.

The nominating committee shall consist of two representatives of each of the three classes to be elected from the respective classes.

It shall be selected not later than the third week of the first semester. Their term of office shall be for one school year.

This committee shall nominate two candidates for each elective office. A majority vote shall be required for the election of all officers. Vacancies which may occur shall be filled by nomination by the nominating committee and regular election. All nominations for office shall have received the approval of the faculty before being presented to the Associated Students for action.

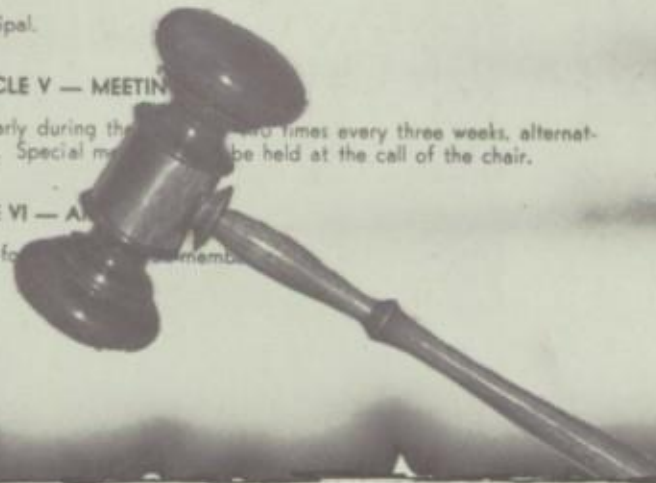

All advisors shall be appointed by the Principal.

ARTICLE V — MEETINGS

The association meeting shall be held regularly during the school year, two times every three weeks, alternating student body secular and religious programs. Special meetings may be held at the call of the chair.

ARTICLE VI — AMENDMENTS

This constitution may be amended by three-fourths of the membership.

First Semester

Gary Ardizzone, President

Chopsticks and chow mein; paper lanterns and jasmine tea—all helped to make the A.S.B. banquet the outstanding social event on the school calendar for the first semester.

Second Semester

Dennis Cook, President

Old plantation house and hot corn bread; soft candlelight and candied yams — all added to the Southern atmosphere at the Junior-Senior banquet for the second semester.

Swan Song

It is all over — the time has come for me to express my appreciation to all who have made this annual possible. First of all — to you the Student Body goes a big thanks, for you have played the most important part. Mr. Jeffreys, sponsor — the annual staff wants to thank you for your extra push which kept us at the job, your ideas, patience, encouragement and unselfish devotion for the good of the annual. Mr. Lane, official photographer of the 1957 STEPPING STONE — a sincere thanks for your wonderful job not only in the taking of the pictures but also for helping us to meet our dead-lines. Mr. Bacon — for giving this yearbook the artistic touch.

To the staff — I want to express my deepest gratitude to each one of you personally for doing your part so well and seeing it through to the end. Sheryn Spilman, associate editor — thanks for the tremendous assistance and excellent job you did. David Brown and Gary Ardizzone, advertising managers, and their capable secretary, Sylvia Almstadt — for all your hard work that it took to get the advertisements and sponsorships, for without your part this annual would not have been possible, financially. Don Winters and Helen Frenzel, snapshot editors — for your constant promotion during the snapshot campaign and for pasting them up. Dan Frederickson, circulation manager — for contacts made for the distribution of our annual. Kay Kott, business manager — for seeing to the proper dispensing of the funds and keeping us out of debt. Richard Wong and Susan Hanson, artists — for the fine details that go into making the layout. Carol Lord, photographer — for your pictures which added much to the enjoyment of this annual. Marcia Miracle and Phyllis Vogel, typists — for preparing the copy for the printer. Bob Bergman and Jean Joergenson, junior high editors — for representing the Junior High division of our school. To you all I say, "many thanks."

As we send this last page to the Yearbook House it is our sincere desire that you will be happy with this year's STEPPING STONE and that it might help bring to memory the TIME that you spent at GUA.

Dear Nancy;

Hav'n't we had fun in Junior High! Remember all the messes we got into & had the fun of getting out of? Changing in gym when the temperature was "just about" 20 below. (Ha) When they tried to get us on opposite teams (a newly always succeeded) Well they say it's all in a lifetime, but — Remember the fun we used to have in library & on Junior High recreation nights, (the trouble you & Aunt Emma took in getting me to come). Our troubles in typing & sewing (the fashion show). But all in all it was fun wasn't it?

Love Mary Anne Kungen
P.S. Lots of luck in the future.

Best of Luck.
